

Week Eleven

Overview

Week Eleven: Edit and Finalize Draft

- Revisit the mentee's draft, discussing each section in relation to the whole, comparing the content to the journal's guidelines and MDM recommendations.
- Ensure that the paper matches the journal's requirements
- Determine if any declarations, conflicts of interest, acknowledgments, or other requirements are needed for the journal

Homework

Homework: Review Step 6 of MDM; write the required abstract; create an account (if needed) for the journal's online submission system

MyDNPManuscript.com
Expert Writing Instruction Exclusively for DNP Students and Graduates

The My DNP Manuscript writing program--officially titled Six Steps to a Publication-Ready Journal Manuscript--is a unique instructional program available to all currently enrolled doctor of nursing practice (DNP) students and DNP program graduates.

The program is now available in both an 8-week on-demand/self-paced video format, and an instructor-led, 8-week taught program.

The writing program features:

- expert instruction on how to write a publishable manuscript about your DNP project or any EBP/QI project,
- insider information from experts in the field of manuscript editing and writing regarding what goes into a journal manuscript and what stays out, and
- specific methods for avoiding the most common mistakes previous DNP students have made while attempting to write their final manuscripts for submission to a journal.
